issuance terms), the share owner shall be granted a share certificate. Shareholders do not have to pay the Company for the cost of printing share certificates.

4. In case a share certificate is lost, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, the shareholder shall be re-issued a certificate by the Company upon request. The request must include:
 - a. Information regarding the lost, damaged, or destroyed certificate;
 - b. A commitment to take responsibility for any disputes arising from the re-issuance of the new certificate.

Article 8. Other securities certificates.

Bond certificates or other securities certificates of the Company are issued with the signature of the legal representative and the seal of the Company.

Article 9. Transfer of shares.

1. All shares are freely transferable unless otherwise provided by this Charter and the law. Shares listed on the Stock Exchange are transferred according to the regulations of the law on securities and the securities market.
2. Shares that have not been fully paid for are not transferable and do not enjoy related benefits such as dividends, receipt of shares issued to increase share capital from equity, rights to purchase new shares, and other benefits as prescribed by law.

Article 10. Forfeiture of shares (in case of business registration)

1. The payment notice mentioned above must specify the new payment deadline (minimum 07 days from the date of the notice), the place of payment, and clearly state that if payment is not made as requested, the unpaid shares will be forfeited.
2. The Board of Directors has the right to forfeit shares that are not fully and timely paid if the requirements in the notice are not met.
3. Forfeited shares are considered shares available for offering as prescribed in Clause 3, Article 112 of the Law on Enterprises. The Board of Directors may directly sell or authorize the sale and redistribution under terms and manners it deems appropriate.
4. Shareholders holding forfeited shares must relinquish their status as shareholders for those shares but remain responsible for the total par value of the shares registered for purchase regarding the Company's financial obligations arising at the time of forfeiture, from the date of forfeiture until the date of payment. The Board of Directors has full authority to enforce the payment of the total value of the shares at the time of forfeiture.
5. A notice of forfeiture shall be sent to the holder of the forfeited shares prior to the time of forfeiture. The forfeiture remains effective even if there is an error or negligence in sending the notice.

V. ORGANIZATIONAL, GOVERNANCE, AND CONTROL STRUCTURE

Article 11. Organizational, governance, and control structure.

The management, governance, and control structure of the Company includes:

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders.
2. The Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board.
3. The General Director.

VI. SHAREHOLDERS AND THE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 12. Rights of shareholders

1. Ordinary shareholders shall have the following rights:
 - a. To attend and speak at the General Meeting of Shareholders and exercise their voting rights directly, through an authorized representative, or via other forms prescribed by the Company's Charter and the law. Each ordinary share shall carry one vote;
 - b. To receive dividends at the rates decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - c. To have the pre-emptive right to purchase new shares offered in proportion to their respective ownership of ordinary shares in the Company;
 - d. To freely transfer their shares to others, except for cases specified in Clause 3, Article 120 and Clause 1, Article 127 of the Law on Enterprises and other relevant legal regulations;
 - e. To review, look up, and extract information regarding names and contact addresses in the list of shareholders entitled to vote; to request the correction of their own inaccurate information;
 - f. To review, look up, extract, or copy the Company's Charter, minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - g. Upon the Company's dissolution or bankruptcy, to receive a portion of the remaining assets in proportion to their share ownership in the Company;
 - h. To request the Company to repurchase their shares in cases specified in Article 132 of the Law on Enterprises;
 - i. To be treated equally. Each share of the same class shall provide the owning shareholder with equal rights, obligations, and interests. In the event the Company has preference shares, the rights and obligations associated with such preference shares must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders and fully disclosed to shareholders;
 - j. To have full access to periodic and extraordinary information disclosed by the Company in accordance with the law;
 - k. To have their legal rights and interests protected; to request the suspension or cancellation of resolutions or decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders or the Board of Directors in accordance with the Law on Enterprises;
 - l. Other rights as prescribed by law and this Charter.
2. A shareholder or a group of shareholders owning [05%] or more of the total ordinary shares shall have the following rights:

- a. To request the Board of Directors to convene a General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with Clause 3, Article 115 and Article 140 of the Law on Enterprises;
 - b. To review, look up, and extract the minute book, resolutions, and decisions of the Board of Directors, semi-annual and annual financial statements, reports of the Supervisory Board, contracts, and transactions that must be approved by the Board of Directors, and other documents, except for documents related to the Company's trade secrets or business secrets;
 - c. To request the Supervisory Board to inspect specific issues related to the management and operation of the Company when deemed necessary. The request must be in writing and include: full name, contact address, nationality, and legal identification document number for individual shareholders; name, enterprise code or legal document number, and head office address for institutional shareholders; the number of shares and the timing of share registration of each shareholder, the total number of shares of the group, and the percentage of ownership in the Company's total shares; the issue to be inspected and the purpose of the inspection;
 - d. To propose issues to be included in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The proposal must be in writing and sent to the Company at least [03 working days] prior to the opening date. The proposal must specify the shareholder's name, the number of each class of shares held, and the issues proposed for the agenda;
 - e. Other rights as prescribed by law and this Charter.
3. A shareholder or a group of shareholders owning [10%] or more of the total ordinary shares shall have the right to nominate candidates to the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board. The nomination shall be conducted as follows:
 - a. Ordinary shareholders who form a group to nominate candidates to the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board must notify the attending shareholders of the group meeting before the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - b. Based on the number of members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board, the shareholder or group of shareholders specified in this Clause is entitled to nominate one or more candidates as decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders. In the event the number of candidates nominated by the shareholder or group of shareholders is lower than the number they are entitled to nominate, the remaining nominations shall be handled as detailed in Article 25 and Article 37 of this Charter.
 4. The request to convene a General Meeting of Shareholders as specified in Point a, Clause 2 of this Article must be in writing and include: full name, contact address, nationality, and legal identification document number for individual shareholders; name, enterprise code or legal document number, and head office address for institutional shareholders; the number of shares and timing of share registration of each shareholder, the total shares of the group and ownership percentage, and the grounds and reasons for the request. The request must be accompanied by documents and evidence of violations by the Board of Directors, the severity of the violation, or decisions made ultra vires (beyond authority). The shareholder or group of shareholders shall be fully responsible before the law for the accuracy and honesty of the documents and evidence provided to the competent authority when requesting the convening of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 13. Obligations of shareholders

Ordinary shareholders shall have the following obligations:

1. To pay for shares committed for purchase in full and on time.
2. Not to withdraw the capital contributed by ordinary shares from the Company in any form, except where the shares are repurchased by the Company or others. In the event a shareholder withdraws part or all of the contributed share capital in violation of this Clause, such shareholder and any person with related interests in the Company must be jointly and severally liable for the debts and other property obligations of the Company within the limit of the value of the withdrawn shares and any resulting damages.
3. To comply with the Company's Charter and Internal Management Regulations.
4. To execute Resolutions and Decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors.
5. To maintain the confidentiality of information provided by the Company in accordance with the Charter and the law; to use the provided information only to exercise and protect their legal rights and interests; the distribution, copying, or sending of information provided by the Company to other organizations or individuals is strictly prohibited.

 - a. Violating the law;

- b. Conducting business and other transactions for personal gain or to serve the interests of other organizations or individuals;
 - c. Paying debts that are not yet due before the Company faces financial risks.
8. To fulfill other obligations as prescribed by current law

Article 14. The General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders (GMS) consists of all shareholders with voting rights and is the highest decision-making body of the Company. The GMS shall hold an annual meeting once a year within four (04) months from the end of the fiscal year. The Board of Directors may decide to extend the deadline for the Annual GMS if necessary, but not exceeding six (06) months from the end of the fiscal year. In addition to the annual meeting, the GMS may hold extraordinary meetings. The venue of the GMS is determined as the location where the Chairperson attends the meeting and must be within the territory of Vietnam.
2. The Board of Directors shall convene the Annual GMS and select an appropriate venue. The Annual GMS shall decide on matters prescribed by law and the Company's Charter, particularly the approval of the audited annual financial statements. In the event that the Audit Report on the annual financial statements contains material exceptions, adverse opinions, or a disclaimer of opinion, the Company must invite a representative of the approved auditing firm to attend the Annual GMS, and said representative shall be responsible for attending.
3. The Board of Directors must convene an Extraordinary GMS in the following cases:
 - a. The Board of Directors deems it necessary for the interests of the Company;
 - b. The remaining number of members of the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board is less than the minimum number required by law;
 - c. Upon request by a shareholder or a group of shareholders as specified in Clause 2, Article 115 of the Law on Enterprises; the request must be in writing, clearly stating the reason and purpose of the meeting, and bearing sufficient signatures of the relevant shareholders;
 - d. Upon request by the Supervisory Board;
 - e. Other cases as prescribed by law and this Charter.
4. Convening an Extraordinary GMS:
 - a. The Board of Directors must convene the GMS within 60 days from the date the number of members is reduced as specified in Point b, Clause 3 of this Article, or upon receiving the request specified in Points c and d, Clause 3. The Board of Directors must report at the nearest GMS if an independent member of the Board of Directors no longer meets the criteria, or convene a GMS to elect or replace such member within 06 months from the date of receiving the notice from the relevant independent member;

- b. If the Board of Directors fails to convene the GMS as prescribed in Point a, Clause 4, then within the next 30 days, the Supervisory Board shall replace the Board of Directors in convening the meeting in accordance with Clause 3, Article 140 of the Law on Enterprises;
- c. If the Supervisory Board fails to convene the meeting, the shareholder or group of shareholders specified in Point c, Clause 3 shall have the right to request the Company's representative to convene the meeting. In this case, the convening party may request the Business Registration Authority to supervise the convening and conducting procedures. All costs for convening and conducting the meeting shall be reimbursed by the Company (excluding personal expenses of shareholders such as meals and travel).
- d. Procedures for organizing the GMS shall comply with Clause 5, Article 140 of the Law on Enterprises.

Article 15. Rights and obligations of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall have the following rights and obligations:
 - a. To approve the Company's development orientation;
 - b. To decide on the classes of shares and the total number of shares of each class authorized to be offered; to decide on the annual dividend rate for each class of shares;
 - c. To elect, dismiss, or remove members of the Board of Directors and members of the Supervisory Board;
 - d. To decide on investments or the sale of assets valued at 35% or more of the total asset value recorded in the Company's most recent financial statements;
 - e. To decide on amendments or supplements to the Company's Charter;
 - f. To approve annual financial statements;
 - g. To decide on the repurchase of more than 10% of the total sold shares of each class;
 - h. To consider and handle violations by members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board that cause damage to the Company and its shareholders;
 - i. To decide on the reorganization or dissolution of the Company;
 - j. To decide on the budget or the total amount of remuneration, bonuses, and other benefits for the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board;
 - k. To approve, amend, or supplement the Internal Governance Regulations, and the Operational Regulations of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board;
 - l. To approve the list of accredited auditing firms; to decide on the accredited auditing firm to perform audits of the Company's activities, and to dismiss accredited auditors when deemed necessary;
 - m. Other rights and obligations as prescribed by law.
2. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall discuss and approve the following matters:

- p. Decisions on the repurchase of more than 10% of the total sold shares of each class;
- q. The Company entering into contracts or transactions with parties specified in Clause 1, Article 167 of the Law on Enterprises with a value equal to or greater than 35% of the total asset value of the Company recorded in the most recent financial statements;
- r. Approval of transactions specified in Clause 4, Article 293 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP dated December 31, 2020, of the Government providing detailed regulations on the implementation of several articles of the Law on Securities, as amended by Clause 84, Article 1 of Decree No. 245/2025/ND-CP dated September 11, 2025;
- s. Approval, amendment, or supplement of the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance, the Operational Regulations of the Board of Directors, and the Operational Regulations of the Supervisory Board;
- t. Other matters as prescribed by law and this Charter.

3. All resolutions and matters included in the meeting agenda must be brought for discussion and voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 16. Authorization to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Shareholders or authorized representatives of institutional shareholders may attend the meeting directly or authorize one or several other individuals or organizations to attend the meeting via one of the following specific forms:
 - a. Individual shareholders may only authorize one (01) other individual or organization to attend the meeting;
 - b. Institutional shareholders holding less than 10% of the total voting shares may authorize a maximum of one (01) individual or organization; those holding from 10% to less than 50% may authorize a maximum of three (03) individuals or organizations; and those holding 50% or more may authorize a maximum of five (05) individuals or organizations to attend the meeting.
2. The authorization for individuals or organizations to represent shareholders at the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed in Clause 1 of this Article must be made in writing. The power of attorney shall be established in accordance with civil law and must clearly state the name of the authorizing shareholder, the name of the authorized individual/organization, the number of authorized shares, the content, scope, and duration of the authorization, and bear the signatures of both the authorizer and the authorized party. Authorized representatives must submit the power of attorney upon registration. In cases of re-authorization, the attendee must also present the original power of attorney from the shareholder or the original authorized representative of the institutional shareholder (if not previously registered with the Company).
3. The voting/election ballots of an authorized person within the scope of authorization shall remain valid in any of the following cases:
 - a. The authorizer has died, has restricted civil capacity, or has lost civil capacity;
 - b. The authorizer has canceled the appointment of the authorization;
 - c. The authorizer has canceled the authority of the person performing the authorization. This provision does not apply if the Company receives notice of one of the above events before the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders or before the meeting is re-convened.

Article 17. Variation of rights

1. The variation or cancellation of special rights attached to a class of preference shares shall take effect when approved by shareholders representing 65% or more of the total votes of all attending shareholders. A resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders concerning content that adversely changes the rights and obligations of shareholders owning preference shares shall only be approved if it is passed by attending preference shareholders of the same class owning 75% or more of the total

- preference shares of that class, or approved by preference shareholders of the same class owning 75% or more of such shares in case of approval via written opinions.
2. The organization of a meeting for shareholders holding a specific class of preference shares to approve the aforementioned variation of rights is only valid if at least two (02) shareholders (or their authorized representatives) holding at least one-third (1/3) of the par value of the issued shares of that class are present. If a quorum is not met, the meeting shall be re-organized within the next 30 days, and those holding shares of that class (regardless of the number of persons or shares) present in person or via authorized representation shall be considered a valid quorum. At such meetings, shareholders may request a secret ballot. Each share of the same class has equal voting rights at these meetings.
 3. The procedures for conducting such separate meetings shall be carried out similarly to the provisions in Articles 19, 20, and 21 of this Charter.
 4. Unless otherwise provided by the terms of share issuance, the special rights attached to classes of shares with preference rights regarding some or all matters related to the distribution of profits or assets of the Company are not considered varied when the Company issues additional shares of the same class

Article 18. Convening, agenda, and notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Board of Directors shall convene annual and extraordinary General Meetings of Shareholders. The Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary meeting in cases prescribed in Clause 3, Article 14 of this Charter.
2. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders must perform the following tasks:
 - a. Prepare a list of shareholders eligible to participate and vote/elect at the meeting. This list shall be established no more than [10 days] before the date of sending the meeting notice. The Company must disclose information regarding the establishment of this list at least 20 days before the record date;
 - b. Prepare the agenda and content of the meeting;
 - c. Prepare documents for the meeting;
 - d. Draft the Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders according to the intended content of the meeting;
 - e. Determine the time and venue of the meeting;
 - f. Notify and send the meeting invitation to all shareholders entitled to attend;
 - g. Perform other tasks to serve the meeting.
3. The meeting notice shall be sent to all shareholders by a method that ensures delivery to their contact addresses, while simultaneously being published on the websites of the Company, the State Securities Commission, and the Stock Exchange where the Company's shares are listed. The convener must send the notice to all shareholders in the List of eligible shareholders at least [21 days] before the opening date (calculated from the date the notice is validly sent). The agenda and related documents for matters to be voted on shall be sent to shareholders and/or posted on the Company's website. The notice must include a link to the full set of meeting documents, including:

- a. The agenda and documents used in the meeting;
 - b. List and detailed information of candidates in case of electing members to the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board;
 - c. Voting/election ballots;
 - d. Draft resolutions for each issue on the agenda.
4. Shareholders or groups of shareholders as prescribed in Clause 2, Article 12 of this Charter have the right to propose issues for the meeting agenda. The proposal must be in writing and sent to the Company at least [03 working days] before the opening date. The proposal must clearly state the shareholder's name, the number of each class of shares held, contact address, nationality, legal identification details, and the proposed issue.
5. The convener has the right to refuse a proposal under Clause 4 if:
- a. The proposal is not sent in accordance with regulations;
 - b. At the time of the proposal, the shareholder or group of shareholders does not hold at least [5%] of the ordinary shares;
 - c. The proposed issue is not within the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - d. Other cases as prescribed by law and this Charter.
6. The convener must accept and include valid proposals into the intended agenda, except for cases in Clause 5; the proposal will be officially added to the agenda if approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 19. Conditions for conducting the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. A meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted if the number of attending shareholders represents more than [50%] of the total voting shares.
2. In the event that the first meeting does not meet the quorum requirements as prescribed in Clause 1 of this Article, the notice for the second meeting must be sent within [30 days] from the originally intended date of the first meeting. The second meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted if the number of attending shareholders represents [33%] or more of the total voting shares.
3. In the event that the second meeting does not meet the quorum requirements as prescribed in Clause 2 of this Article, the notice for the third meeting must be sent within [20 days] from the originally intended date of the second meeting. The third meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted regardless of the total number of voting shares represented by the attending shareholders.

Article 20. Procedures for conducting and voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Prior to the opening of the meeting, the Company must perform shareholder registration procedures and continue such registration until all eligible shareholders present have been registered, in accordance with the following sequence:
 - a. Upon shareholder registration, the Company shall issue each shareholder or authorized representative entitled to vote with a voting card/ballot, which specifies the registration number, full name of the shareholder, full name of the authorized representative, and the number of voting shares of such shareholder. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall discuss and vote on each issue in the agenda. Voting shall be conducted by choosing "affirmative," "negative," or "abstention." The results of the vote counting shall be announced by the Chairperson/Vote Counting Committee immediately before the closing of the meeting. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect persons responsible for counting or supervising the counting of votes based on the nomination of the Chairperson. The number of members of the Vote Counting Committee shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders based on the Chairperson's proposal;
 - b. Shareholders or authorized representatives of institutional shareholders who arrive after the meeting has opened are entitled to register immediately and subsequently participate and vote at the meeting. The Chairperson is not responsible for pausing the meeting to allow latecomers to register, and the validity of matters already voted upon prior to their arrival shall remain unchanged.
2. The election of the Chairperson, Secretary, Shareholder Eligibility Verification Committee, and Vote Counting Committee is prescribed as follows:
 - a. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall act as the Chairperson or authorize another member of the Board of Directors to act as the Chairperson of the General Meeting of Shareholders convened by the Board of Directors. In the event the Chairman is absent or temporarily incapacitated, the remaining members of the Board of Directors shall elect one of them to act as the Chairperson based on a majority principle. If no Chairperson can be elected, the Head of the Supervisory Board shall preside so the General Meeting of Shareholders may elect a Chairperson from among the attendees, and the person with the highest number of votes shall act as the Chairperson;
 - b. Except for cases specified in Point a of this Clause, the person who signed the notice to convene the meeting shall preside so the General Meeting of Shareholders may elect a Chairperson, and the person with the highest number of votes shall act as the Chairperson;

- c. The Chairperson shall appoint one or several persons to act as the Meeting Secretary; the Shareholder Eligibility Verification Committee shall serve the meeting;
 - d. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect one or several persons to the Vote Counting Committee based on the Chairperson's proposal.
3. The agenda and content of the meeting must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders during the opening session. The agenda must clearly and specifically define the time allocated for each issue.
4. The Chairperson has the right to implement necessary and reasonable measures to conduct the General Meeting of Shareholders in an orderly manner, in accordance with the approved agenda, and to reflect the wishes of the majority of attendees:
 - a. Arrange seating at the meeting venue;
 - b. Ensure the safety of everyone present at the meeting locations;
 - c. Facilitate the attendance (or continued attendance) of shareholders. The convener has the full authority to change the aforementioned measures and apply all necessary measures, including the issuance of entry passes or other selection methods.
5. The convener or Chairperson of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the following rights:
 - a. To require all attendees to undergo inspection or other legal and reasonable security measures;
 - b. To request competent authorities to maintain order at the meeting; to expel from the meeting any person who fails to comply with the Chairperson's directions, intentionally disrupts order, obstructs the normal progress of the meeting, or fails to comply with security check requirements.
6. The Chairperson has the right to adjourn a meeting for which a sufficient number of attendees have registered for a maximum of no more than three (03) working days from the intended opening date, and may only adjourn or change the venue in the following cases:
 - a. The venue does not have sufficient convenient seating for all attendees;
 - b. Communication facilities at the venue are inadequate for shareholders to participate, discuss, and vote;
 - c. Attendees obstruct or disrupt order, posing a risk that the meeting may not be conducted fairly and lawfully.
7. In the event the Chairperson adjourns or suspends the meeting in violation of Clause 6 of this Article, the General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect another person from among the attendees to replace the Chairperson and conduct the meeting until its conclusion; all resolutions passed at such meeting shall be valid and binding.

8. In case the Company applies modern technology to organize the General Meeting of Shareholders via online meetings, the Company is responsible for ensuring that shareholders can participate and vote through electronic voting or other electronic forms in accordance with Article 144 of the Law on Enterprises and Clause 3, Article 273 of Decree No. 155/NĐ-CP dated December 31, 2020.

Article 21. Conditions for approval of Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Resolutions on the following matters shall be passed if approved by shareholders representing [65%] or more of the total voting shares of all attending and voting shareholders, except for cases specified in Clauses 3, 4, and 6, Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises:
 - a. Classes of shares and the total number of shares of each class;
 - b. Changes in business lines and sectors;
 - c. Changes in the organizational and management structure of the Company;
 - d. Investment projects or the sale of assets valued at 35% or more of the total asset value recorded in the Company's most recent financial statements;
 - e. Reorganization or dissolution of the Company;
 - f. Extension of the Company's operational term.
2. Other resolutions shall be passed if approved by shareholders representing more than [50%] of the total voting shares of all attending and voting shareholders, except for cases in Clause 1 of this Article and Clauses 3, 4, and 6, Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises.
3. Note: In the case of electing members to the Board of Directors (BOD) and the Supervisory Board (SB), if the number of candidates is less than or equal to the required number of members, the election may be conducted via cumulative voting as per Clause 3, Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises, or via the voting method (affirmative, negative, abstention). The approval threshold for the voting method shall follow Clause 2, Article 21 of the Company's Charter.
4. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders passed by 100% of the total voting shares shall be considered lawful and valid, even if the sequence and procedures for convening the meeting and passing such resolutions violated the provisions of the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter.

Article 22. Authority and procedures for collecting written opinions of shareholders to approve Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

The authority and procedures for collecting written opinions of shareholders to pass a Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be implemented in accordance with the following provisions:

1. The Board of Directors has the authority to collect written opinions of shareholders to pass a Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the following matters:

- a. Amendments and supplements to the contents of the Company's Charter;
 - b. Approval, amendment, or supplement of the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance; the Operational Regulations of the Board of Directors; and the Operational Regulations of the Supervisory Board;
 - c. The Company's development orientation;
 - d. Classes of shares and the total number of authorized shares of each class;
 - e. Election, dismissal, or removal of members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board;
 - f. Investment projects or the sale of assets valued at 35% or more of the total asset value recorded in the Company's most recent financial statements;
 - g. Approval of annual financial statements;
 - h. Reorganization or dissolution of the Company;
 - i. Changes in business lines and sectors;
 - j. Changes in the organizational and management structure of the Company;
 - k. Annual dividend rates for each class of shares in accordance with the Law on Enterprises and the rights attached to such class of shares;
 - l. Total remuneration for members of the Board of Directors and the Remuneration Report of the Board of Directors;
 - m. Selection of auditing firms;
 - n. Inspection and handling of violations by the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board that cause damage to the Company and its shareholders;
 - o. Repurchase by the Company of more than 10% of a class of issued shares;
 - p. The Company entering into contracts or transactions with parties specified in Clause 1, Article 167 of the Law on Enterprises with a value equal to or greater than 35% of the total asset value of the Company recorded in the most recent financial statements.
2. The Board of Directors must prepare the opinion forms, the draft Resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and documents explaining the draft Resolution, and send them to all voting shareholders at least [15 days] before the deadline for returning the opinion forms. The requirements and methods for sending the opinion forms and accompanying documents shall be implemented in accordance with the provisions of Clause 3, Article 18 of this Charter.
 3. The opinion form must contain the following primary contents:
 - a. Name, head office address, and enterprise code;
 - b. Purpose of collecting opinions;
 - c. Full name, contact address, nationality, and legal identification document number for individual shareholders; name, enterprise code, or legal document number and head office address for institutional shareholders; or the full name, contact address, nationality, and legal identification document number of the

- representative of the institutional shareholder; the number of shares of each class and the number of voting rights of the shareholder;
- d. Matters for which opinions are collected to pass a decision;
 - e. Voting options including "affirmative," "negative," and "abstention" for each matter;
 - f. The deadline by which the completed opinion form must be returned to the Company;
 - g. Full name and signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors.
4. Shareholders may return the completed opinion forms to the Company by mail, fax, or email as follows:
- a. In case of mailing, the completed opinion form must bear the signature of the individual shareholder, the authorized representative, or the legal representative of the institutional shareholder. Opinion forms sent to the Company must be in sealed envelopes, and no one is permitted to open them before the vote counting;
 - b. In case of fax or email, the opinion forms sent to the Company must be kept confidential until the time of vote counting;
 - c. Opinion forms returned to the Company after the specified deadline, or those in envelopes that have been opened (for mailing) or disclosed (for fax or email), shall be invalid. Opinion forms that are not returned shall be considered as non-participating votes.
5. The Board of Directors shall count the votes and prepare a vote counting minute under the supervision of the Supervisory Board or a shareholder who does not hold a management position in the Company. The vote counting minute must contain the following primary contents:
- a. Name, head office address, and enterprise code;
 - b. Purpose and matters for which opinions were collected;
 - c. The number of shareholders with the total number of voting/election shares participating in the vote, distinguishing between valid and invalid votes and the method of submission, accompanied by an appendix listing the shareholders who participated;
 - d. Total number of affirmative, negative, and abstention votes for each matter, and the total number of votes for each candidate (if any);
 - e. Matters that have been passed and the corresponding approval ratio;
 - f. Full name and signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the vote counters, and the vote counting supervisors. Members of the Board of Directors, vote counters, and supervisors shall be jointly and severally liable for the honesty and accuracy of the vote counting minute, and for any damages arising from decisions passed due to dishonest or inaccurate vote counting.

6. The vote counting minute and the Resolution must be sent to shareholders within 15 days from the date the vote counting ends. The sending of the minute and Resolution may be replaced by posting them on the Company's website within 24 hours from the end of the vote counting.
7. Responded opinion forms, vote counting minutes, passed Resolutions, and relevant documents sent with the opinion forms must be archived at the Company's head office.
8. A resolution passed by collecting written opinions shall be valid if approved by shareholders owning more than [50%] of the total voting shares of all voting shareholders and shall have the same value as a resolution passed at a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 23. Resolutions and Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be recorded in minutes and may be tape-recorded or recorded and archived in other electronic forms. Minutes must be prepared in Vietnamese and may additionally be prepared in a foreign language, containing the following primary contents:
 - a. Name, head office address, and enterprise code;
 - b. Time and venue of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - c. Meeting agenda and content;
 - d. Full names of the Chairperson and the Secretary;

 - f. The number of shareholders and total voting shares of attending shareholders, an appendix of the list of registered shareholders and representatives present with their corresponding shares and votes;
 - g. Total number of votes for each matter, clearly stating the voting method, total valid and invalid votes, affirmative, negative, and abstentions; and the corresponding ratio of the total votes of attending shareholders;
 - h. Summary of the votes for each candidate (if any);
 - i. Matters passed and the corresponding approval ratio;
 - j. Full names and signatures of the Chairperson and the Secretary. In case the Chairperson or Secretary refuses to sign the minutes, the minutes shall be valid if signed by all other attending members of the Board of Directors and containing all contents required by this Clause. The minutes shall clearly state the refusal of the Chairperson or Secretary to sign.
2. Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be completed and approved before the conclusion of the meeting. The Chairperson and Secretary, or other persons signing the minutes, shall be jointly and severally liable for the honesty and accuracy of the contents.

3. Minutes prepared in Vietnamese and a foreign language shall have equal legal validity. In case of any discrepancy between the Vietnamese and the foreign language versions, the Vietnamese version shall prevail.
4. Resolutions, Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the appendix of the list of registered shareholders, powers of attorney, and all accompanying documents must be archived at the Company's head office and disclosed in accordance with the law on information disclosure in the securities market.

Article 24. Request for cancellation of Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

Within 90 days from the date of receiving the Resolution, the Minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders, or the vote counting minute of written opinions, shareholders or groups of shareholders as prescribed in Clause 2, Article 115 of the Law on Enterprises have the right to request a Court or Arbitration to consider and cancel a Resolution or part of a Resolution in the following cases:

1. The sequence and procedures for convening the meeting and passing the decision seriously violate the provisions of the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter, except for the case specified in Clause 3, Article 21 of this Charter.
2. The content of the Resolution violates the law or this Charter.

VII. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 25. Nomination and candidacy for members of the Board of Directors

1. If candidates for the Board of Directors have been identified, the Company must disclose information related to the candidates at least 10 days before the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the Company's website. Candidates must provide a written commitment regarding the honesty and accuracy of their personal information and commit to performing their duties honestly, prudently, and for the best interests of the Company if elected. Disclosed information includes:
 - Full name, date of birth;
 - Professional qualifications;
 - Working history;
 - Other management positions (including positions on the Board of Directors of other companies);
 - Interests related to the Company and its related parties;
 - Other information as prescribed by this Charter.
2. Shareholders or groups of shareholders owning [10]% or more of the total ordinary shares have the right to nominate candidates. Shareholders holding ordinary shares have the right to aggregate their voting rights to nominate candidates.
 - From 10% to less than 20%: nominate one (01) candidate;
 - From 20% to less than 30%: nominate up to two (02) candidates;
 - From 30% to less than 35%: nominate up to three (03) candidates;

- From 35% to less than 40%: nominate up to four (04) candidates;
 - From 40% to less than 60%: nominate up to five (05) candidates;
 - From 60% to less than 70%: nominate up to six (06) candidates;
 - From 70% to 80%: nominate up to seven (07) candidates;
 - From 80% or more: nominate up to eight (08) candidates.
3. If the number of candidates is insufficient, the incumbent Board of Directors shall introduce additional candidates or organize nominations as per the Charter and Internal Regulations. This introduction must be clearly announced before the GMS votes.
 4. Members of the Board of Directors must satisfy the standards and conditions prescribed in Clauses 1 and 2, Article 155 of the Law on Enterprises, the Law on Securities, other legal provisions, and the Company's Charter.

Article 26. Composition and term of office of members of the Board of Directors.

1. The number of members of the Board of Directors shall be [05] persons.
2. The term of office of a member of the Board of Directors shall not exceed five (05) years and such member may be re-elected for an unlimited number of terms. An individual shall only be elected as an independent member of the Board of Directors of a company for no more than two (02) consecutive terms. In the event that all members of the Board of Directors conclude their terms at the same time, such members shall continue to serve as members of the Board of Directors until new members are elected as replacements and take over the duties.
3. The composition of the members of the Board of Directors is as follows:
 - The composition of the Board of Directors of the Company must have at least one (01) non-executive member. The Company shall minimize the number of members of the Board of Directors concurrently holding executive positions in the Company to ensure the independence of the Board of Directors.
 - The total number of independent members of the Board of Directors must be one (01) member.
 - The rights, obligations, and the method of organization and coordination of activities of the independent members of the Board of Directors shall be specifically prescribed in the Operational Regulations of the Board of Directors.
4. A member of the Board of Directors shall lose their status as a member in the event of dismissal, removal, or replacement by the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with Article 160 of the Law on Enterprises.
5. The appointment of members of the Board of Directors must be disclosed in accordance with the provisions of law on information disclosure in the securities market.
6. Members of the Board of Directors are not required to be shareholders of the Company

Article 27. Powers and obligations of the Board of Directors.

1. The Board of Directors is the management body of the Company and has full authority, in the name of the Company, to decide and exercise the rights and perform the obligations of the Company, except for those within the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
2. The rights and obligations of the Board of Directors are prescribed by law, the Company's Charter, and the General Meeting of Shareholders. Specifically, the Board of Directors has the following powers and obligations:
 - a. To decide on the strategy, medium-term development plans, and annual business plans of the Company;
 - b. To recommend the classes of shares and the total number of authorized shares of each class;
 - c. To decide on the sale of unissued shares within the limit of the authorized shares of each class; to decide on raising additional capital in other forms;
 - d. To decide on the selling price of shares;
 - e. To decide on the private placement of bonds in accordance with Article 130 of the Law on Enterprises. The Board of Directors has the right to decide on the types of bonds, the total value of bonds, and the timing of the offering, but must report to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the nearest meeting. The report must be accompanied by documents and dossiers regarding the bond offering;
 - f. To decide on the repurchase of shares in accordance with Clause 1 and Clause 2, Article 133 of the Law on Enterprises;
 - g. To decide on investment plans and investment projects within its authority and limits as prescribed by law;
 - h. To decide on solutions for market development, marketing, and technology;
 - i. To approve contracts for purchase, sale, borrowing, lending, and other contracts or transactions valued at [35%] or more of the total asset value recorded in the most recent financial statements of the Company, except for those within the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders as prescribed in Point d, Clause 2, Article 138, and Clause 1 and Clause 3, Article 167 of the Law on Enterprises;
 - j. To elect, dismiss, and remove the Chairman of the Board of Directors; to appoint, dismiss, sign contracts with, and terminate contracts of the General Director and other key managers as prescribed in the Company's Charter; to decide on salaries, remuneration, bonuses, and other benefits for such managers; to appoint authorized representatives to participate in the Board of Members or the General Meeting of Shareholders in other companies and decide on their remuneration and other benefits;
 - k. To supervise and direct the General Director and other managers in the day-to-day business operations of the Company;

- l. To decide on the organizational structure and internal management regulations of the Company; to decide on the establishment of subsidiaries, branches, and representative offices, and the contribution of capital or purchase of shares in other enterprises;
 - m. To approve the agenda and contents of documents for the General Meeting of Shareholders, to convene meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders or to collect opinions to pass resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - n. To submit audited annual financial statements to the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - o. To recommend the dividend rate to be paid; to decide on the timeline and procedures for dividend payment or the handling of losses incurred during business operations;
 - p. To recommend the reorganization or dissolution of the Company, or to request bankruptcy of the Company;
 - q. To decide on the issuance of the Operational Regulations of the Board of Directors and the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance after approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders; and the Company's Regulations on Information Disclosure;
 - r. To request the General Director, Deputy General Directors, and other managers in the Company to provide information and documents regarding the financial situation and business activities of the Company and its units;
 - s. Managers are required to provide timely, complete, and accurate information and documents upon request by members of the Board of Directors. The sequence and procedures for requesting and providing information are specifically prescribed in the Operational Regulations of the Board of Directors;
 - t. Other rights and obligations as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises, the Law on Securities, other legal provisions, and the Company's Charter.
3. The Board of Directors must report the results of its operations to the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with Article 280 of Decree No. 155/2020/NĐ-CP dated December 31, 2020, as amended by Clause 82, Article 1 of Decree No. 245/2025/NĐ-CP dated September 11, 2025.

Article 28. Remuneration, bonuses, and other benefits of members of the Board of Directors

1. The Company has the right to pay remuneration and bonuses to members of the Board of Directors based on business results and efficiency.
2. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to remuneration for their work and bonuses. Work remuneration is calculated based on the number of working days necessary to complete the duties of a Board member and the daily remuneration rate. The Board of Directors shall estimate the remuneration for each member based on the principle of unanimity. The total amount of remuneration and bonuses for the Board of Directors shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the Annual General Meeting.

3. The remuneration of each member of the Board of Directors shall be included in the Company's business expenses in accordance with the law on corporate income tax and shall be presented as a separate item in the annual financial statements of the Company and reported to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the Annual General Meeting.
4. Members of the Board of Directors holding executive positions, or those serving on sub-committees of the Board of Directors, or performing other tasks outside the scope of the normal duties of a Board member, may be paid additional remuneration in the form of a lump-sum fee for each occasion, salary, commission, profit percentage, or in other forms as decided by the Board of Directors.
5. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to reimbursement for all travel, accommodation, meals, and other reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their responsibilities, including expenses arising from attending meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors, or sub-committees thereof.
6. The Company may purchase liability insurance for members of the Board of Directors upon approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders. This insurance does not cover liabilities related to violations of the law or the Company's Charter by Board members.

Article 29. Chairman of the Board of Directors

1. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be elected, dismissed, or removed by the Board of Directors from among its members.
2. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall not concurrently hold the position of General Director.
3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors has the following rights and obligations:
 - a. To establish programs and operational plans for the Board of Directors;
 - b. To prepare the agenda, contents, and documents for meetings; to convene, preside over, and act as the Chairperson of meetings of the Board of Directors;
 - c. To organize the passing of resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors;

date. The notice must specify the time, venue, agenda, and the issues to be discussed and decided upon. The notice must be accompanied by documents to be used at the meeting and voting ballots for the members.

The notice of the Board of Directors meeting may be sent by invitation letter, telephone, fax, electronic means, or other methods prescribed by the Company's Charter, ensuring it reaches the contact address of each Board member as registered with the Company.

7. The Chairman of the Board of Directors or the convener shall send the notice of meeting and accompanying documents to the members of the Supervisory Board in the same manner as provided to the members of the Board of Directors.

Members of the Supervisory Board have the right to attend meetings of the Board of Directors and to participate in discussions, but they shall not have the right to vote.

8. A meeting of the Board of Directors shall be conducted when three-quarters (3/4) or more of the total number of members are present. In the event that a meeting convened in accordance with this Clause does not have the required quorum, a second meeting shall be convened within [03 days] from the originally intended date of the first meeting. In this case, the meeting shall be conducted if more than half of the members of the Board of Directors are present.
9. A member of the Board of Directors shall be deemed to have attended and voted at a meeting in the following cases:
 - a. Attending and voting in person at the meeting;
 - b. Authorizing another person to attend and vote in accordance with Clause 11 of this Article;
 - c. Attending and voting via online conference, electronic voting, or other electronic forms;
 - d. Sending a voting ballot to the meeting via mail, fax, or email;
 - e. Sending a voting ballot by other means [as prescribed in the Company's Charter].
10. In the event a voting ballot is sent to the meeting via mail, the ballot must be placed in a sealed envelope and delivered to the Chairman of the Board of Directors at least one (01) hour before the opening of the meeting. Voting ballots shall only be opened in the presence of all attendees.
11. Voting:
 - a. Except as provided in Point b, Clause 11, Article 30, each member of the Board of Directors or an authorized person as prescribed in Clause 9 of this Article present in person at the meeting of the Board of Directors shall have one (01) vote;
 - b. A member of the Board of Directors shall not be entitled to vote on contracts, transactions, or proposals in which such member or their related person has an interest that conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company. Such member shall not be counted toward the quorum required to hold a meeting regarding decisions on which the member has no voting rights;

- c. Pursuant to Point d, Clause 11, Article 30, if an issue arises at a meeting related to the interests or voting rights of a member and such member does not voluntarily waive their voting rights, the ruling of the Chairperson shall be final, except where the nature or scope of the relevant member's interest has not been fully disclosed;
 - d. A member of the Board of Directors who benefits from a contract as specified in Point a and Point b, Clause 6, Article 43 of this Charter shall be deemed to have a significant interest in that contract;
 - e. Inspectors (Supervisors) have the right to attend Board meetings and participate in discussions but shall not have voting rights.
12. Any member of the Board of Directors who directly or indirectly benefits from a contract or transaction already signed or intended to be signed with the Company, and is aware that they are an interested party, has the responsibility to disclose this interest at the first meeting of the Board where the signing of such contract or transaction is discussed. In the event the member is unaware that they or their related person has an interest at the time the contract or transaction is signed, the member must disclose the relevant interests at the first meeting of the Board held after becoming aware of such interest.
13. Members must attend all meetings of the Board of Directors. A member may authorize another person to attend and vote if approved by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors.
14. Resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors shall be passed if approved by a majority of the attending members; in the event of a tie, the final decision shall rest with the side that includes the opinion of the Chairman of the Board of Directors (the Casting Vote).
15. The Board of Directors has the right to collect written opinions from its members to pass Board Resolutions on matters within its authority as prescribed in Clause 2, Article 27 of this Charter.
- A resolution via written opinions shall be passed based on the approval of a majority of the voting members. Such resolution shall have the same effect and validity as a resolution passed at a meeting.
16. Meetings of the Board of Directors may be organized in the form of an online conference between members when all or some members are at different locations, provided that each participating member can:
- a. Hear every other participating member speaking during the meeting;
 - b. Address all other participating members simultaneously.

Discussions may take place directly via telephone or other communication means, or a combination thereof. A member participating in such a meeting is considered "present." The venue of the meeting shall be the location where the largest number of members are gathered, or the location where the Chairperson is present. Decisions passed in a duly organized teleconference shall take effect immediately upon the conclusion of the meeting but must be confirmed by the signatures in the minutes of all attending members.

17. The Chairman of the Board of Directors is responsible for sending the meeting minutes to the members, and such minutes shall be conclusive evidence of the proceedings unless an objection to the content is raised within ten (10) days from the date of sending. Minutes shall be prepared in Vietnamese and may be prepared in a foreign language. The minutes must bear the signatures of the Chairperson and the person recording the minutes (Secretary).

Article 31. Sub-Committees under the Board of Directors.

1. The Board of Directors may establish subordinate sub-committees in charge of development policy, human resources, remuneration, internal audit, and risk management. The number of members of a sub-committee shall be decided by the Board, with a minimum of [02 persons], including members of the Board of Directors and external members. Independent/non-executive members should constitute a majority in the sub-committee, and one of these members shall be appointed as the Head of the sub-committee. Activities of the sub-committee must comply with the regulations of the Board of Directors. A sub-committee resolution shall only be valid if approved by a majority of members attending and voting at the sub-committee meeting.
2. The implementation of decisions of the Board of Directors or its subordinate sub-committees must comply with current legal provisions, the Company's Charter, and the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance.
